- (ii) Marks obtained in Main (Written) Examination Paper 'I' Language (General Hindi and General English) which is only qualifying in nature will not be added to the aggregate marks for calculation of percentage of marks, or for preparation of merit list for Interview Test or for preparation of final merit list
- (iii) Such candidates belonging to any reserved category who avail the benefits of any relaxation/ reservation at any stage of the examination will be adjusted against the vacancies of their respective reserved category."

4 Rule -18 of "The Jharkhand Combined Civil Services Examination Rules, 2021 (as amended vide 1st Amendment)" is as follows:-

- "(i) Candidates belonging to any of the reserved category and selected on the standards fixed for unreserved candidates shall not be adjusted against the reserved category vacancies.
- (ii) Whenever candidates belonging to reserved category avail the benefits of relaxation of age, minimum qualifying marks fixed for reserved candidates appearing in examination at any stage then such candidates would be adjusted against the vacancies of a reserved category."

shall be substituted as below:-

"18. Preliminary Examination:-

There shall be a selection list for admission to the Main Examination which shall be prepared in the following manner:

Candidates will be arranged by the Commission in order of merit. An initial selection list shall first be prepared which shall contain candidates equal to approximately 15 times, the total number of advertised vacancies. The marks obtained by the last candidate shall be considered as the UNR cutoff.

If the representation of any of the reserved categories (horizontal or vertical) is less than 15 times the advertised vacancies of that category, then the cut off for the same shall be reduced till adequate representation (15 times the advertised vacancies) is ensured.

All candidates getting marks equal to their respective category cut off shall be included in the selection list for admission to the main examination.

All candidates in the selection list have to meet the minimum qualifying standard as mentioned in sub-Rule 17(i)"

5 Rule -19 of "The Jharkhand Combined Civil Services Examination Rules, 2021 (as amended vide the 1st Amendment)" is as follows:-

“(i) After interview, the candidates will be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as determined by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate in the Main (Written) Examination and Interview test.

Thereafter, the Commission shall, for the purpose of recommending candidates against unreserved vacancies, fix a qualifying mark (hereinafter referred to as general qualifying standard) with reference to the number of unreserved vacancies to be filled up on the basis of the Main Examination.

For the purpose of recommending reserved category candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II), Economically Weaker Section and candidates belonging to Persons with Benchmark Disability against reserved vacancies, the Commission may relax the general qualifying standard with reference to number of reserved vacancies to be filled up in each of these categories on the basis of the Main Examination.

Provided that the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II) and Economically Weaker Section who have not availed themselves of any of the concessions or relaxations in the eligibility or the selection criteria, at any stage of the examination and who after taking into account the general qualifying standards are found fit for recommendation by the Commission shall not be recommended against the vacancies reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II) and Economically Weaker Section.

(ii) Service allocation will be made by the Commission.

While making service allocation, the candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II), Economically Weaker Section recommended against unreserved vacancies may be adjusted against reserved vacancies by the Commission, if by this process they get a service of higher choice in the order of their preference. The Commission may lower the general qualifying standard if vacancy arises under un-reserved category by following this rule.

(iii) Commission shall allocate service to the candidates as per their choice and the merit list prepared under rule 19(i). Service and Category wise vacancies & a model merit list of 200 candidates are shown in Table-1 and Table-2 of the Appendix-II, respectively.

If a candidate belonging to a reserved category and selected under unreserved category without availing any relaxed standard is allocated service of her/his choice under the unreserved category then she/he shall be adjusted against vacancy of unreserved category. However, if a candidate belonging to reserved category and selected under unreserved category without availing any relaxed standard cannot be allocated service of her/his choice under unreserved category and she/he may be allocated service of her/his choice under her/his reserved category then she/he shall be allocated service of her/his choice under reserved category as per rule 19(ii). A model selection list against 50 vacancies of different services is enclosed as Table-3 of the Appendix-II."

"19 Main Examination:-

- (i) The Main examination shall consist of the Main (written) examination and the Interview.
- (ii) There shall be a selection list for the Interview Test which shall be prepared in the following manner:

Candidates will be arranged by the Commission in order of merit. An initial selection list shall be first prepared which shall contain candidates equal to approx 2.5 times the total number of advertised UNR vacancies. The marks obtained by the last candidate shall be considered as the UNR cutoff.

Those candidates belonging to reserved categories in the initial selection list who have not taken any benefit/relaxation of being in a reserved category shall be considered as UNR candidates for the purpose of this selection list.

Reserved category candidates selected against reserved category seats have to be equal to approximately 2.5 times the number of advertised vacancies of the respective category. For this purpose, the cut off shall be further lowered for each reserved category to include more candidates in the selection list. This shall be in addition to the reserved category candidates selected as UNR candidates in the initial selection list.

All candidates have to meet the minimum qualifying standard as mentioned in sub-Rule 17(i)

- (iii) After interview, the candidates will be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as determined by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate in the Main (Written) Examination and Interview test.

Thereafter, the Commission shall, for the purpose of recommending candidates against unreserved vacancies, fix a qualifying marks (hereinafter referred to as general qualifying standard) with reference to the number of unreserved vacancies to be filled up on the basis of the Main Examination.

For the purpose of recommending reserved category candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II), Economically Weaker Section and candidates belonging to Persons with Benchmark Disability against reserved vacancies, the Commission may relax the general qualifying standard with reference to number of reserved vacancies to be filled up in each of these categories on the basis of the Main Examination.

Provided that the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II) and Economically Weaker Section, who have not availed themselves of any of the concessions or relaxations in the eligibility or the selection criteria at any stage of the examination and who after taking into account the general qualifying standards are found fit for recommendation by the Commission, shall not be recommended against the vacancies reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Extremely Backward Classes (Annexure-I), Backward Classes (Annexure-II) and Economically Weaker Section.

(iv) Service allocation will be made by the Commission.

While making service allocation, the candidates belonging to any of the reserved categories recommended against unreserved vacancies may be adjusted against reserved vacancies by the Commission, if by this process they get a service of higher choice in the order of their preference. The Commission may lower the general qualifying standard if vacancy arises under un-reserved category by following this rule.

(v) Commission shall allocate service to the candidates as per their choice and the merit list prepared under sub-Rule 19(iii). For example Service and Category wise vacancies & a model merit list of 200 candidates are shown in Table-1 and Table-2 of the Appendix-II, respectively.

If a candidate belonging to a reserved category and selected under unreserved category, without availing any relaxed standard, is allocated service of her/his choice under the unreserved category, then she/he shall be adjusted against vacancy of unreserved category. However, if a candidate belonging to reserved category and selected under unreserved category without availing any relaxed standard cannot be allocated service of her/his choice under unreserved category and she/he may be allocated service of her/his choice under her/his reserved category, then she/he shall be allocated service of her/his choice under reserved category as per sub-Rule 19(iv). For example a model selection list against 50 vacancies of different Services is enclosed as Table-3 of the Appendix-II."

- 6 Sub- Rule (iv) under Rule 3- Main Examination of The Appendix I - Section I - Plan of Examination of "The Jharkhand Combined Civil Services Examination Rules, 2021 (as amended vide the 1st Amendment)" is hereby abolished.
- 7 Rest provisions of "The Jharkhand Combined Civil Services Examination Rules, 2021 (as amended vide the 1st Amendment)" shall remain unchanged.
- 8 Approval has been granted on the proposal through Departmental Memorandum Memo No. 11/Lo.Se.Aa-01-03/2020 (Part) 7006 ka. dated 15.12.2023 in the State Cabinet's Meeting dated 15.12.2023 vide item no.17.
